When Death Intrudes

Why this topic?

- We are family, not a business. Most of you know Judy and I have experienced a double death of Judy's parents in the last 3 weeks. We have chosen to speak about this season of our lives. In so doing we hope you will be open and share about family matters. Joys and the pain. In your meeting today – take time to share what you are thankful for and area's where you are struggling. Can the group help you in any way?
- We need to diligently honour old age, engage death and dying with dignity and speak to our kids about loss, death and dying. We need to challenge the cultural reality of old age is disposable and it's a world that exists for tech savvy teens. We all need to honour old age in where you are our parents and engage loss with dignity. We need to be intentional about healthy legacy building and passing on of honour.
- Lastly this is a prophetic season of transition. The end of an era and beginning of a new era. What in your current experience is in transition and moving into a new season! Are you engaging the loss of the one and embracing the challenge of the new?

1 Corinthians 15:54-57 (NIV)

⁵⁴ When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." ⁵⁵ "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" ⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
